The Advantage of Buying Furs Early

Makers select the exceptionally fine quality Furs first, and these are made up in advance and at less expense than is possible later in the season. We purchased these Furs in the latter part of May, when prices of fine pelts were considerably lower than they are now. The savings we made were substantial, and we are passing them on to you. When considering the purchase of Furs, know this-prices are bound to be higher later-by buying now you benefit from unusual savings.

The Prices

Kaufmann Quality Furs are guaranteed to be of absolute first quality. Yet, in many instances, they are priced as low or even lower than Furs of ordinary quality. This season prices are considerably under those of a year ago. By securing Fur Wraps and Coats during August you will reap the benefits of unusual values at remarkably
